“ My sincere condolences to Brad's family and friends. He was an asset to Dogwood Animal Shelter's mission. While introducing and promoting the dogs to visitors at the shelter, his easy and friendly demeanor helped to accomplish many adoptions. He genuine affection for both animals and people, and always was ready to lend a hand wherever needed. A friendly face and a giving heart - he will be missed.

“ Brad was a dear and close friend of mine. I admired him for his quick witt, steel trap memory, and his generous nature!! I'll truly miss him, yet know he's happier now then he ever thought he would be!! Bruce Kennedy

“ When Brad relocated back to Osage Beach he began work at the golf course. Brad and I became close friends and he loved being outside and doing whatever he could to make the golf course the best it could be. He was always helping others and doing what ever I asked of him and more. He had a great wit and loved his stories about the people he had met in his life. I always loved the one when he had a shot of scotch with Margaret Thatcher when she was staying at his hotel, and he went to the store and purchased the scotch she wanted because the hotel did not carry it. He will be missed and he has left us way to early. RIP my friend, until we meet again.
