“ What a great man. I will always remember when he came to the family reunion in Michigan, we had a gathering at the motel on the Friday night before. Here comes Raymond carrying a three pound can of Folgers coffee. He said he never leaves home without it. Wish we lived closer to have gotten to know him better. Sending hugs and prayers to all.

“ hi everyone i know it has been hard on everyone i just wanted to say a few things about Raymond if yall don't mind?> so when i herd that there was something wrong with Ray so i about cried but then mom said he only has a few days to live and then well i cried. I always new him as more than an uncle he was like a second father to me you see my dad was not always there for me and treated us kids like crap so when we went to visit Ray and Judy Ray would always be there for us kids and let us get away with well ALOT!!! so i just want to say if u can hear me or somehow see what i'm doing we all miss u and will always remember you. "you will always be in our Heart big Guy"
