“ Edith was my hero. She took our whole family in when I was 15 years old and enabled us to climb out of poverty to a decent life in Valparaiso. I asked her once how she was able to stand so many running in an out of her house when she had her own kids to care for and she simply stated, ‘you were family’. That , to me, was so profound but was purely Edith. I will always remember her as the wisest and kindest person I’ve ever known. Although I haven’t been able to see her for several years I never have and never will forget how gracious she was to us. I will be grateful to her always. My heart goes out to her family and loved ones. Edith has enriched so many lives. She is leaving us with many loving and happy memories. Hugs
