Lois was born in Osceola, Iowa but raised in Weldon, Iowa. She began her schooling in Weldon but then later graduated from Osceola, Iowa once they consolidated the schools. After finishing her schooling, she began working as a secretary in the Capitol Building for a few years, she then worked for the Selective Service System before finding her true calling in real estate. While in Osceola she met Richard Gonseth and they were later united in marriage on September 2, 1961. Together they farmed for twenty years before moving to Camdenton, Missouri where she obtained her license and continued in real estate. They were snowbirds, traveling to Florida or Arizona for the winter but always making sure to return home before the spring bloom.

In her spare time, she loved pontoon boating, going to church and attending bible study. She also enjoyed making themed dinners and entertaining family and friends.
